NO SECURITY OBJECTIONS

Employee will make no reference to, or discuss his CIA connection, assignment or duties while participating in [REDACTED]

Chief, Security Control Staff

c. Title of course to be taken: The Marx-Lenin-Stalin Doctrine as Applied in the European Satellite Area
Instructor: Professor Jan Karski

d. Dates of course:
28 September 1953 - 2 February 1954 Evening classes

e. Cost of course: $75.00

f. Justification: The object of this course is to investigate the application of the Marx-Lenin-Stalin line in the European satellite area. This would entail investigation into the application and effect of those ideologies in the social, political, cultural and economic fields. Since Miss [REDACTED] field of interest is the Eastern European satellites and their trade relations with the USSR and the West, the Division believes that a course of this nature would be of valuable assistance in providing a basic concept of the satellite evolution of this area and aid in understanding the interaction of these countries as controlled by the USSR.

25X1A

[REDACTED] received a Bachelor of Arts Degree from Barnard College, Columbia University in history. She has had course work in the fields of political science and economics. This course will enable her to fill in gaps of knowledge in the specific area of Eastern Europe, the area with which she is mainly concerned. The information obtained would relate directly to her area of responsibility and, as such, would be a valuable asset.

25X1A

- g. [REDACTED] has stated that she has every intention to continue her employment in CIA on a career basis.

25X1A

2. [REDACTED] understands that she is not to associate herself with the Agency or Agency personnel during this course.
